As a precursor to the Constitution Day celebrations, several pre-events were conducted on 16th November 2024. These included an extempore speech competition on the theme of the Indian Constitution and a debate competition on the motion, "Is NEP 2020 Enough to Create a Viksit Bharat by 2047?" The debate participants deliberated on the merits and challenges of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, leading to a vibrant exchange of ideas. The two winners of the debate competition represented NERIST in the Mock Parliament Competition, held at the Arunachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly. The topic for the Mock Parliament, "Viksit Bharat and Education," allowed them to further engage with critical educational policies and their role in shaping a developed India.

The event featured two expert talks. The first talk, titled “Indian Constitution and Its Importance” was delivered by Dr. Hage Opi. She provided an insightful overview of the historical context and drafting process of the Constitution, highlighting the visionary leaders behind its creation. Her talk emphasized the significance of the Preamble, Fundamental Rights, and Directive Principles of State Policy, along with a discussion on the federal structure and the amendment process that ensures the Constitution’s adaptability. The second talk, “Janjatiya Gaurav Divas and Varsh,” was presented by Dr. Maryom Dabi, who shed light on the rich tribal heritage of India and its crucial role in shaping the vision of a Viksit Bharat by 2047. He emphasized the importance of tribal inclusion in India’s developmental narrative.

Following the talks, two engaging competitions were organized: a quiz competition and an essay writing competition, both centered on the theme of the Indian Constitution. Students from NERIST and Kendriya Vidyalaya (K.V.), NERIST, participated enthusiastically. The quiz competition tested participants’ knowledge of key articles, amendments, and milestones of the Constitution through an interactive format. Meanwhile, the essay competition invited participants to write on the topic, “The Fundamental Rights and Duties: A Comparative Analysis.” The essays were evaluated on their originality, content depth, and understanding of Constitutional principles, with several participants showcasing remarkable analytical skills.
